Walton In Bloom – 2026

Allotments

To be Judged by……

Date ……..[previously around the end of June]

- Cornucopia Award – [best overall with widest range of produce]
- Cornucopia Award – runner up –
- Special Award – [something different/something that catches the judges' eye] - Three shields.

Best newcomer may also be awarded [certificate only]

Allotments of Parish Councillors are excluded

Gardens

To be judged by ……..

Date……..[previously around the end of July]

- Best Garden Overall
- Best Containers
- Best Hanging Basket
- Most Unusual

Four shields.

Runner up awards may also be awarded in all categories [certificates only]

All gardens visible from the road are automatically entered

Gardens of Parish Councillors are excluded but Gardens created by the family members of Councillors may be included when the competition has an independent non-Walton resident judge

Budget

Competition expenses budget – for engraving of shields ……

[Total budget for competitions this year is £75.00, last year engraving cost £62.00]

Proposal

To use the above as a starting point for discussion, and agree judges, dates, and budget, for the 2026 event.